Each participant in the Event acknowledges and accepts our “Code of Conduct” and accepts full responsibility for their adventure and commits to promoting goodwill, promoting cultural awareness and tolerance. Crews agree to respect the laws, customs, traditions and people of Southern Africa, but above all you pledge to look after our treasures: the animals, the flora and fauna and the most beautiful landscape in the world.

The Put Foot Rally is all about having fun, giving back to those less fortunate and generally having the time of your life. It is not the Event’s or its participants’ place to pass judgment or comment on politics, religion, race or the laws of the countries visited during the Event.

This Code of Conduct governs each Crew Member’s participation in the Event. Each person has a duty to remember at all times that the Event and its participants are guests in each country visited, and that despite the fact that we may come from across the world, with our own approach to life, personal beliefs and values, this Event is not only about respecting each other, but more importantly respecting the people of Africa and abiding by their beliefs, their rules and ultimately their way of life.

Each participant agrees to take part in the spirit in which The Put Foot Rally is presented, envisaged and intended; to promote Africa to the world, acting as Ambassadors for "The greatest road trip adventure on the face of the Earth" while displaying a never-ending passion and energy to ‘leave the world, in better shape than we found it’.

Each Crew takes responsibility for their actions and the actions of each of the Crew Members at all times which includes embracing and abiding by the following:

OUR GOAL:

- To prove that you can use any vehicle to travel across Southern Africa!
- To prove that travel across Southern Africa is Easy, Safe, Fun and Affordable!
- Giving back through awesome direct, hands-on charity work: gifting young underprivileged children with brand new school shoes and raising funds for wildlife conservation.

HOW TO KEEP THE GOOD TIMES ROLLING:

- Participate in the spirit of the Event at all times.
- Respect your fellow participants.
- Respect the right to peace and quiet of non-Put Foot Rally’ers.
- Respect the local population, their religious beliefs, customs and traditions.
- Respect government officials, civil servants and officials on duty.
- Respect and abide by the requests of the Put Foot Rally Staff.
- Remember time is not a factor. It is NOT a race.
- Keep your cool; never ever lose your temper.
